

Cave Search

Children are natural explorers. And finding out new things about themselves is endlessly fascinating.

So grab a flashlight and a mirror and let them have a good look at their own teeth. If they hold the flashlight and you hold the mirror, you've got an instant journey right to the center of oral care. What can you see? Is there anyone in there? Can you see all the parts that your brush needs to work extra hard to reach?

Aquafresh
amazing™